ESTABLISHMENTS AND PERSONNEL

A confidential source abroad advised according to information available the following named exiled Croats intended to travel to Munich, Germany, for the burial of Dr. Jelic:

- 1) Ante Dosen, ^{N 201} residence-United States of America.
- 2) Miro Gal, ^{N 201} residence in United States of America.
- 3) Andreja Artukovic, residence in United States of America.
- 4) Ante Basic, ^{N 201} residence in Canada.

The source provided the following background information concerning the above individuals:

Dosen is reportedly an ex-Ustascha officer who has been active in organizing and training Croatian immigrants in North and South America as well as Europe in terroristic matters. Gal is reportedly a close colleague of Dosen. Both are thereby of the opinion that the opposition against Yugoslavia is to be carried out with force not words.

Artukovic was reportedly Minister of Interior under Ante Pavelic and thereby responsible for all persecutions instituted by the state. In Yugoslavia he is compared with Eichmann.

Basic apparently wanted to come to Germany from Toronto, Canada, in a charter flight with a group of other Croats.

There were further indications that a conference was planned to take place at the end of the burial service during which the successor to Dr. Jelic would be elected. Both Dosen and Gal were mentioned as possible candidates. According to information received subsequent to the burial, Dosen did attend and took part as a speaker on the funeral program. Gal reportedly sent a sympathy card.

Jozo Vrbic (Josip Vrbic) reportedly was also in attendance at the funeral.
